(b) DRAMATIC CUES

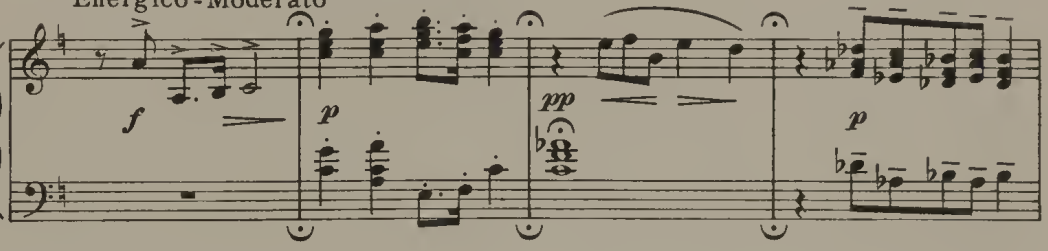
MISSOURI: Justice and liberty. and Art. and Faith.

Energico-Moderato

STRIFE:
In every clashing
hour etc. etc.
"Who are these?"



ST. LOUIS: Nay, Strife. Stand back.

MISSOURI: Stand here. Not strife to me, but power.
Power for the struggle up the long slant future.

Adagio

MISSOURI: And now, ye singing voices, soar again, And beat the earth beneath triumphant feet.

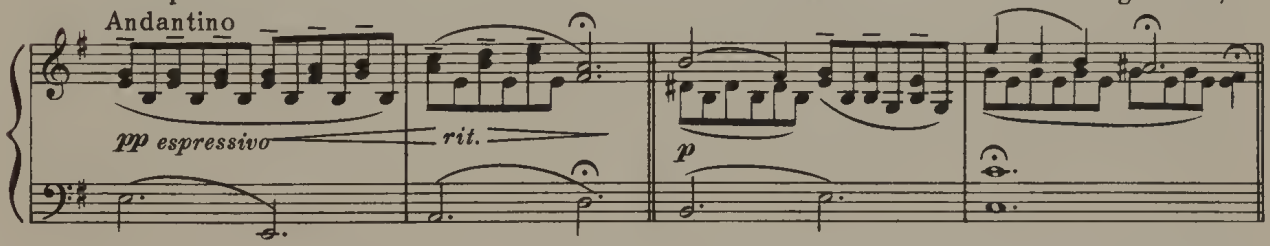
Andantino

MISSOURI:
Tonight a hundred spring's remembered flowers
Blow from a hundred winter's melting snows;



A hundred summer's fill the ripening grain,
A hundred harvests gather into one
And I am crowned with all their garnered gold.
